Have you been denied needed assistance by the DEMOCRAT Joliet Township Supervisor's office?

Many have been denied food for their table when needed.

Have you or anyone in your family been denied medical assistance when it was badly needed?

The Democrat Township Supervisor boasts that he is saving tax money, but the way he does it is to deny needy people food, shelter and medical attention.

The Democrats don't seem to care too much about their promises in Joliet Township, after they get in office.

Was your tax bill, or your house payment, or your rent made more difficult because of the HIGHER TAX ASSESSMENTS placed upon you by the DEMOCRAT tax office at the Courthouse?

Percy For Governor

When Illinois voters go to the polls next Tuesday, they will be making decisions which, we believe, are among the most fateful of modern times.

As things stand now, it is only political realism to assume that Lyndon B. Johnson will sweep Illinois as well as the nation and will, in many instances, carry other Democratic candidates with him. Thus the Illinois voter is faced with a critical choice -- a choice upon which, we believe, the very survival of the two-party system in this state will depend.

We supported Charles H. Percy, the Republican gubernatorial candidate, in the primary last spring. We support him again.

We believe that, for Illinois, it will be one of the great political tragedies of this generation if Chuck Percy is swept down the drain because of the handicap of the Goldwater candidacy. Both Illinois and the cause of good government deserve a better fate than that.

Chuck Percy promises a "new Illinois," an administration geared to growth and development. He has the qualities of dynamic leadership -- personal integrity, great talent, business know-how. These are qualities that Illinois can ill afford to lose.

So we speak again to the voters -- and particularly to those who feel they cannot support the Goldwater candidacy. Vote nationally as you please -- but on the state level, vote truly to make Illinois the land of opportunity, to realize in the full our state's potential. Vote for Chuck Percy. We are confident that you will.

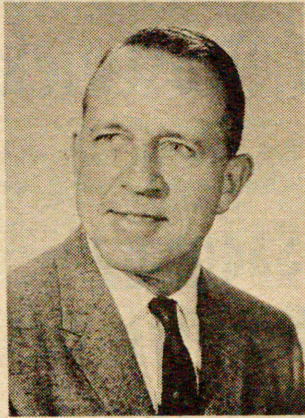

IHSA Reelects Chapman To Legislative Commission

A. Hunter Chapman, superintendent of Lincoln-Way high school, was recently reelected to the legislative commission of the Illinois High School Association. The IHSA supervises and controls all interscholastic activities of its member schools and performs other educational functions as approved by the membership.

The commission members represent the high schools in their respective districts, and act on proposed amendments to the constitution and by laws of the IHSA. In case a proposal is approved by the commission it is then submitted to the member schools for a vote.

Chapman's district includes 54 high schools in the southern part of Cook county and all of Will, Kendall, Grundy and Kankakee counties.

Supt. Chapman first served on the IHSA legislative commission in 1943 when he was elected by the principals in western Illinois. Following this term he was elected to the executive board of directors of the IHSA, serving one term. Chapman has been active in the work of the Illinois High School Association for many years, serving on the basketball rules committee and is presently an honorary member of the certified state basketball officials organization. Several of the present basketball rules resulted from Chapman's leadership and close association with H. V. Porter, former executive secretary of the National Federation of High School Athletic Associations.

During the annual meeting of the commission this week in Chicago, Chapman was elected vice president of the group.

Two proposals of interest came before the group for consideration. The controversial question of girls' interscholastic athletics was rejected and consequently will not be voted upon by the member schools. The second proposition permitting a school, which only participates in one basketball tournament to play one additional game, was approved and will be voted upon. Presently, a school can play in 21 games if in no tournament and eighteen games if in one or two.

Corn Picker, Car Collide

An automobile and a corn picker collided last Friday night at 104th ave. and 191st street, east of Mokena but no one was reported injured, according to Mokena police chief, Roy Newton.

The corn picker, driven by Edward Maue, 60, whose farm home is at 104th and 183rd st., had pulled out of a field onto 191st street and was making a right turn onto 104th ave., when it was struck from the rear by a car driven by John Kistler, 45, Sugar Creek drive, Joliet. The accident occurred at 6:55. The motorist was reported to have said the farm vehicle was without lights. Both vehicles were damaged.

Defeat Bond Issue For New Orland School

Orland school district voters defeated a bond issue, for a new school, a proposal to repay the state building commission for its share of building a new school, and a proposed increase in the educational tax fund from $1.12 1/2 to $1.33 1/2.

The school board asked authority to issue $300,000 in bonds. That was beaten 639 to 353.

The board also asked authority to enter into an agreement with the state building commission to finance the remainder of the cost of the new school and be paid off like rent, without interest. That proposition was defeated 647 to 353.

The proposal to raise the educational fund tax rate 21 cents was beaten 625 to 368.

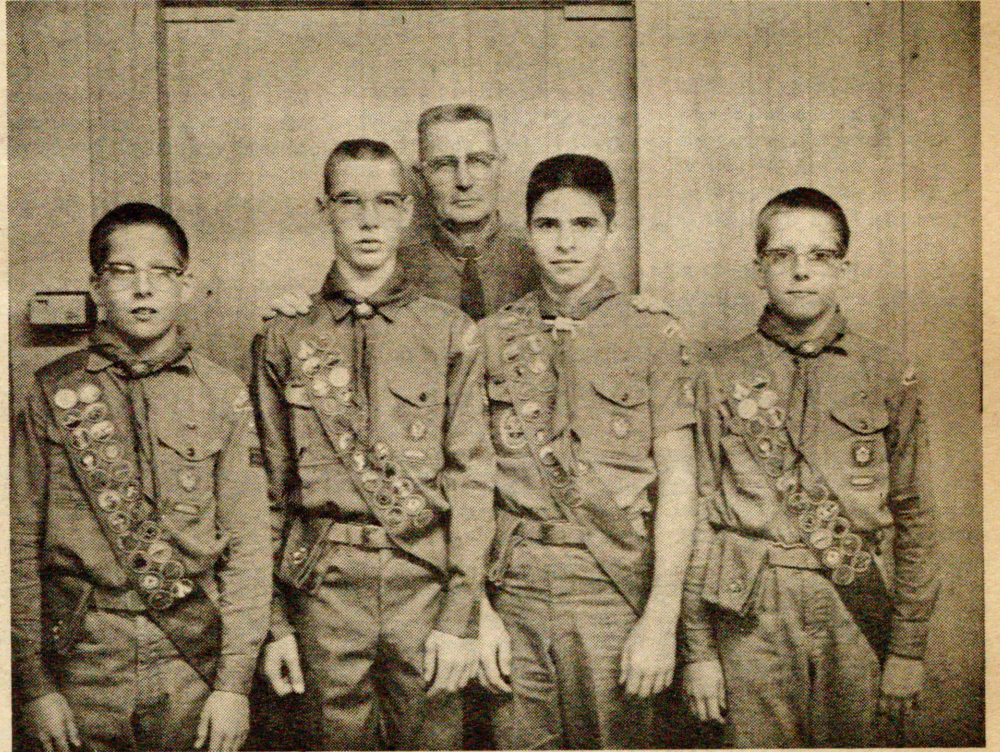

A total of 1,020 votes were cast, the largest in the history of the district. The board was to decide this week on whether to submit the proposals again.

youngsters occupied on Halloween, it was pointed out, and for that Police Chief Roy Newton is pleased. The chief is asking all the residents of the community to help guard against pranks. They can do this best, he pointed out, by stowing away portable objects, such as tricycles, garbage cans, bikes, water hose and anything else that is loose and can be carried.

Four Mokena Boy Scouts Attain Rank Of Eagles

Four Mokena youths are to be invested with the rank of Eagle Scouts -- the highest rank attainable in the Boy Scout organization -- at the Rainbow Council Eagle Court of Honor in Joliet next Monday, Nov. 2.

It is unusual that a community the size of Mokena would have four Eagle Scouts named at the same time. It is even more unusual that two of the boys honored are twins, David and Charles Bills, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bills, 95 Parker st. Another brother, Robert a freshman at Lincoln-Way high school, is also in the group and the fourth Eagle Scout is George Gorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gorman, 191st and Wolf rd. Young Gorman is a junior at Lincoln-Way. David and Charles are in seventh grade at Willow-

Crest school.

Sponsoring these four scouts at the Court of Honor will be eight Joliet businessmen, Mayor Charles Swanberg, Dick Friant, Henry Shevlin, Arthur Melin, Roy Richardson, Walter Welsch, Will Tuttle and Everett Cooper.

The selection of these four boys as Eagle Scouts is the first time one of that rank has been named from Mokena since 1959 when Robert Munch was accorded the honor.

To become an Eagle scout, it was explained, a scout must have earned 21 merit badges, including the following on the required list: Camping, swimming, nature, public health, fire prevention, cooking, life saving, safety personal fitness, first aid and communications. Also they must have three of four citizenship badges, home, community and nation.

The minimum time required to perform all the tasks that the earning of 21 merit badges entails is two years of hard work and study.

There are some 2,000 Boy Scouts in Rainbow Council and of this number 16 have been chosen for the Eagle rank at the Court of Honor Nov. 2.

One of the happiest men in the community as a result of the honor accorded the four Mokena scouts is Paul Smith, head of scouting at Mokena. He has worked long hours in helping the boys reach their goals.

The Mokena Lions club, sponsor of Boy Scout Troop 40, of which these boys are members, will have the new Eagles as their dinner guests next Thursday, Nov. 5.

Parade Will Feature Mokena's Halloween

Annual observance of Halloween in the form of a costume parade will mark the event at Mokena. The parade, held under the auspices of the Amvets Women's Auxiliary, is to move off from the Carpenter Street school grounds at 6:30 Saturday evening and proceed to the fire district station on Front st.

Wearers of the prize winning costumes will receive their awards at the fire house. All prizes are the same -- silver dollars. The only variation is in number. First prize is $2, second prize, $1. For pupils in the seventh and eighth grades there will be an extra prize of $1. In all a total of $25 will be distributed.

There will be one class of contestants limited to pre-schoolers. The others will run in classes, first, second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth grade pupils and the final one of seventh and eighth graders.

There are no rules about entering the parade nor are there any blanks to fill out, it was stressed by those in charge. All any youngster has to do if he wants to take part in the festivities is to show up at the school grounds on time Saturday evening and be wearing a costume and mask.

Refreshments also will be served at the fire station. This parade keeps a lot of

Mokena Methodist Club To Aid UNICEF Sunday

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of Mokena is spearheading a house to house appeal for UNICEF (United Nations Children's Fund) on Sunday afternoon between 2 and 6 p.m. This will be their celebration of Halloween.

Any youngsters from the fourth thru the eighth grade who would like to aid in the undertaking is invited to be at the Mokena Methodist church before 2 o'clock, according to Toby Nichols, head of the MYF.

A church publication lists what donations can provide: 1¢ can buy enough BCG vaccine to protect one child against tuberculosis.

- 5¢ can pay freight on enough donated surplus dried milk to provide 25 large glasses of liquid milk
- 10¢ can buy enough penicillin to cure four children of yaws
- 15¢ can buy a three months' supply of vitamin capsules for a child
- 25¢ can buy enough antibiotics to cure two children of trachoma
- 50¢ can buy enough DDT to protect seven children from malaria for a year.

IT SEEMS that the soap and detergent crowd is passing up a good bet in their TV commercials if they ignore a report carried in a publication published by the American Medical Association dealing with "dishpan hands."

As it stands the principal spiel dealing with detergents used in dishwashing is made by a gal, cast in the role of mother and housewife. Sometimes she is alone -- which is natural. Sometimes -- altho this is hard to believe -- she is assisted by a supposedly younger gal in the role of daughter.

The mother, however -- and in this the script is real life -- is doing the washing, she is the pearl diver. She is shown with her hands deep in dishwater but she is smiling and chatting away quite happily.

HOW WONDERFUL it is, she tells the world, to have discovered that truly wonderful, wonderful detergent, Whoosh! Dishwashing when done with Whoosh! is not a chore. It is a pleasure that she looks forward to, three times a day. Whoosh! and all the grease is gone. Whoosh! and burned pans sparkle.

While she doesn't exactly say so the inference is there that if her husband suggested they go out for dinner and then taken in a show she would cheerily decline the invitation because it would make her forego the pleasure of washing a great mound of dishes and pans.

The daughter, who up to this point had made a couple of dabs at a saucer with a dishtowel and registering enthusiasm and delight over the mother's revelations as to the qualities of Whoosh! prettily urges she be allowed to wash the dishes.

BUT THE MOTHER refuses. She is not a selfish mother, one learns, because she has just brought the daughter some formals and a convertible thru the savings she has effected since she has been using Whoosh!

No, the real reason she won't let the daughter do the washing is because Whoosh! is so marvelous for the hands. She apparently giving away 20 years to her offspring yet when the two hold up their hands side by side both are young and fair to see.

This is not surprising if one considers that only the hands are visible at this point, he realizes that in all likelihood he sees are pictures of the same hand that belong to someone entirely divorced from the dishwashing scene.

One can't blame the sponsor for being careful. Just think what a terrible thing it would be if the mother gave in and let the daughter do the dishwashing segment, and it wound up with daughter saying:

"Whoosh! Look mom, no hands!"

IN THE FUTURE it might be that a new member would be added to the cast. A man in a white coat, with a stethoscope peeping out of a pocket or dangling from his neck.

You see according to this piece in the AMA publication "dishpan hands" may not be caused by the use of soap and synthetic detergents. The piece really is a report from the "Archives of Dermatology" and relates to a study in which 89 men and women volunteers entered a hospital and for an hour a day, five days a week, for two weeks kept their hands immersed. One hand was in a solution of a washing product while the other was in just plain tap water.

At the beginning of the test 66 of the volunteers had rashes affecting the hands, "most of them the so-called (housewives dermatitis, dishpan hands."

At the end of the test there was an improvement in the condition of both hands in most of the persons with rashes and little change in either hand where the skin was normal.

Furthermore, the pattern of change, whether better or worse, in an individual was similar in both hands, it was stated.

THE REPORT goes on to say that other investigations have implicated a variety of factors in the development of "housewives dermatitis." Frequently it begins with the coming of cold weather when humidity is low and hands may be chapped, the report declares. Other factors include pre-existing skin trouble, various chemical agents encountered in housework, injuries, fungus, bacteria and emotional problems.

You see, while the report doesn't credit any detergent with making hands lovely, it doesn't discredit either.

That is where the guy in the white coat can come in. He can infer that the experiment was conducted using Brand X, whereas an experiment conducted by a "nationally known laboratory," whatever that is, shows that Whoosh! was just what the doctor ordered.

We know that Dr. Casey and Dr. Kildare have tremendous influence with TV addicts but we would be against their use for such commercials. Anyway we doubt very much that either would step out of character to take the job -- after all neither is a skin man.

Letters To The Editor

FINDS GHOST VOTERS

Dear Sir:

The peculiar antics of Mr. Sydney Holtzman and his Chicago Board of Elections involving our canvass to insure "One Man-One Vote" is of unusual interest to me. I am one of the volunteer canvassers from the U. of I. at Urbana.

My team worked in a fairly stable negro neighborhood on the near south side. These were nice, courteous people. We had no political identification and many obviously thought we were Democrats as they would run and get their "Vote Democrat" buttons, or their little beanies with "Vote Democrat" printed on them. They were often nervous and apparently upset, anxious to say the right thing.

In three hours we covered a small part of this precinct and found 76 voters to challenge. After thorough checking and rechecking we found that 15 had moved at one time or another. Many residents of a period of five years or more insisted the remaining 61 had never lived in the neighborhood in their memory, if ever. They claimed to know everyone in their vicinity and this appeared to be true. A few who understood why we were there asked why we hadn't "done something years ago". Our other teams had much the same results.

Next year I will enter military service. Undoubtedly the lives of many more of us will be exacted in some remote part of the world we know little about, with little understanding of why we are there, or why we should be there.

Well, this war against illegal voting I do understand. All citizens can enlist in this war by making a decision to vote against the Democrat Machine candidates wherever they are.

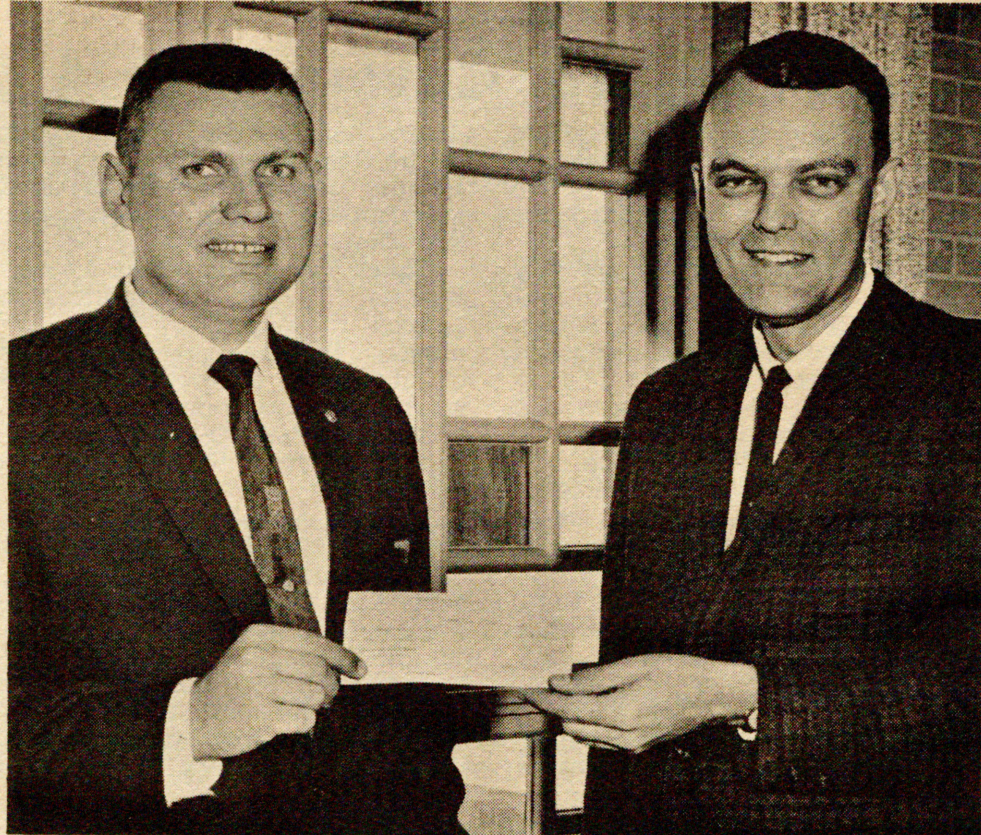

I am not quarreling with my destiny. One lives the best he knows how in his own time and place. But I am frustrated by the vacillation and apathy of the American people who support an administration that talks endlessly of peace and prosperity while we are endlessly and hopelessly at war, an American people who apparently condone and support the practices of the Sydney Holtzmans who make no secret of their betrayal of public office.

There IS vote fraud and vote stealing in Chicago, and on a large scale. All the people of Illinois should repudiate this evil at the polls.

These people, in their ignorance and dependence, are being cruelly exploited and used by cynical, self-seeking men. Those men sitting in high political office would not dirty their hands with the direct, bullying, and shameful tactics employed in the intimidation of these people to get their cooperation in vote fraud. Nevertheless, they willingly, eagerly, accept the fruits of the labors of those assigned to this unsavory task, and these they accept from men they would not allow in their living rooms, or acknowledge as friends, or even acquaintances.

The voters of Illinois can put a stop to this at the polls on Nov. 3, if they will.

Sincerely yours,
Richard Engelhardt

School Employes Must Show Freedom From TB

Today and tomorrow (Oct. 29-30) will be the last time this school year for all school employes who have direct contact with pupils to get free chest x-rays.

Under regulations governing schools all such employes in high school, grade school, kindergarten, and nursery school, including public, private and parochial, are required to show evidence of freedom from tuberculosis annually.

A mobile chest x-ray unit will be parked at the Joliet township central high school, 201 East Jefferson, today and tomorrow between 1 and 5 p.m.

X-ray pictures will be taken only of employes 30 years of age or over. Employes under 30 are to consult their regular physicians regarding skin tests. When the skin test is administered, it was explained, it is not necessary to have x-ray examination. However, a certificate showing that the skin test has been taken must be filed with the secretary of the board of education.

Any positive reactions that may appear as a result of the x-ray will be referred to the employee's physician. The Will County TB Association will take care of the registration and completion of the cards of those who visit the mobile x-ray unit.

competition for the year last week the frosh-sophs edged Rich East 27-30 by taking the top three places with Biddle, Zeman and Reeves. The other runner placing for the sophs was Jim Sheehan.

The varsity was whitewashed 15-50 by Rich East and beaten by Thornton of Harvey and downstate Muskoda in a triangular meet. The 30-44-50 defeat to the Eagles was partly due to the absence of Steve Raydon who was taking the PSAT test. Runners placing for the Eagles were, Biddle, Zeman, Crowhurst and Sedgwick.

Reasons For Opposing Blue Ballot

The Illinois Manufacturers' Association is opposed to two proposed amendments to the Illinois state constitution which will be submitted to voters on Nov. 3 on a blue paper, it was announced this week.

Several hundred businessmen attending an IMA regional management conference at the Sheraton-Blackstone hotel in Chicago were informed that IMA is urging its members to vote "NO" on both blue ballot issues.

One amendment would provide for annual sessions of the General Assembly. IMA's board of directors says annual sessions are unnecessary, would prove more costly than special sessions, and would mean new and additional taxes for Illinois citizens.

The second amendment would provide for continuity of governmental operations in periods of emergency. IMA's board says this amendment is so poorly drafted that it would permit the legislature to suspend all constitutional rights, including the right to have matters submitted to the courts.

4 Will County Men Run For State Legislature

In the previous general election Will county was a legislative district in itself, the 37th, and as such was entitled to have three representatives in the lower house of the Illinois General Assembly.

But this election is different. A hassle in the legislature over reapportionment of the state finally resulted in throwing the legislature race wide open thru abolition of all district boundaries. This means that candidates for the lower house of the assembly are running in the state as a whole.

There are 177 seats to be filled in the house and each of the major parties nominated 118 candidates at special conventions last summer.

Four of the candidates are from Will county, two of them Republicans, two of them Democrats.

The Republicans are Meade Baltz, of Joliet, and Robert Blair, of Park Forest.

The Democrats are Francis J. Loughran, Joliet, and John J. Houlihan, of Park Forest.

Baltz is seeking reelection to the legislature. He has served two terms there. He steered to passage a bill--of which he was also the author--which requires an audit of county governments with more than 10,000 population, a measure that had been advocated for many years by taxpayer groups. It was the work of Baltz that was largely responsible for allotment of a fourth circuit judge to the circuit that is made up of Will, Kankakee, and Iroquois counties. Baltz was former chairman of the Will county board of supervisors having served as supervisor of Joliet township. In 1962 he was honored by the Illinois Township Officials Association for outstanding accomplishment in government and in 1963 was chosen Outstanding Male Republican by the Will County Young Republicans.

Robert Blair has not been a candidate for elective office before but has been quite active in politics. He is the chairman of the Will county Republican central committee and is a member of the Public Building Commission. A lawyer, he is attorney for Monee township and is president of the Fairfax Realty Co. at Park Forest. He is a member of the legal staff of Swift and Co. and formerly was an assistant to the president of the firm.

Francis J. Loughran is a Joliet lawyer and a leader in the Will county Democratic party for 40 years, has served the legislature for the past 10 years. Previously he had been a state central committeeman and an assistant state's attorney. He has the endorsement of the Illinois Federation of Labor and the CIO, and the Sportsmen's groups. He has consistently fought stream pollution.

John J. Houlihan is a deputy county treasurer and resides in Park Forest. He has been a candidate on the Democrat county ticket previously but was unsuccessful.

ful. That he is on the ticket this fall is due to Sheriff Joseph Trizna having been elected to the convention at which the Democrats picked their legislative candidates.

HI JINX party planners pay no attention to time-honored superstitions such as opening an umbrella indoors, black cats and the like. In fact such things will be included in the decorations for the St. Michael school benefit Nov. 13. Discussing the party here (l to r) are Mrs. Eugene Mehrling, Mrs. Ernest Shinn, and Mrs. John Murphy. The cat's name is "Midnight."

St. Michael School Mothers Plan Card Party, Style Show

Spoofing spooky superstition St. Michael school mothers are sponsoring an adult card party and fashion show on Friday, Nov. 13. "Hi-Jinx" will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium with dessert and coffee, and trimmings of black cats, ladders and open umbrellas. Mrs. Thomas Finucane of Palos Park will commentate for the 36 fashions to be modeled by mothers of the children attending St. Michael School.

The mothers are breaking the tradition of sponsoring monthly card parties. This year they hope well wishers and friends will help them raise in just two large parties the same amount of money previously realized. All proceeds will be applied to the annual school deficit of $20,000. Every mother in the school will work on "Hi-Jinx" or on the second party scheduled for Feb. 19. General chairman for "Hi-Jinx" is Mrs. Ernest Shinn assisted by Mrs. Robert Mayer, Mrs. Fred Graver, Mrs. George Gallagher, Mrs. Paul Mattei, Mrs. James McMahon and Mrs. Edward Grigus of Palos Park; and Mrs. John Flanagan and Mrs. Eugene Mehrling of Orland Park.

Also assisting in the organizational work are mesdames Robert Angus, William Boylan, Aloystus Conroy, Robert Doeseckle, John Masson, Robert Miller, John Murphy, Edward Rafacz and Francis Simon of Orland Park; and Charles Grigus, Pascal Guido, James Immormino, Charles Larkin, Robert Price, David Yerkes and Gregory Vinkler.

Tickets and information may be obtained from school mothers or by calling 448-2754. Donation is $1.50.

ENGAGED - Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Likas of Orland Park announce the engagement of their daughter Joanne to Owen A. Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Purdy Bradford of Palos Park. Joanne attends Joliet Jr. College and her fiancé is presently employed by a meat packing company in Chicago. No definite date has been arranged for the wedding, as yet.

The affair was held in the Social Center on Wolf road, Sunday, Oct. 18. Games were played and prizes awarded to those attending.

A BRIGHT TODAY

A BRIGHTER TOMORROW

Four years ago... do you remember?

The storm clouds of financial chaos had gathered over Illinois. We were on the "brink of broke". Unemployment was up. Industrial development was at a low ebb... economic growth at a standstill. Our unfortunate mentally ill were virtual "snake-pit" prisoners forced to sit out their lives with little help and no hope.

Then you elected OTTO KERNER Governor!

Today, our state is solvent and operating under a truly BALANCED BUDGET for the first time in more than a decade.

Today, hundreds of new expanded industries are doing profitable business in Illinois. Employment is at an all-time high. Personal income has jumped by 21 per cent.

Today, Illinois has a mental health program second to none... stressing treatment and rehabilitation... not hopeless incarceration. Yes, today is indeed bright in Illinois!

And TOMORROW will be even brighter! Under the imaginative leadership of GOVERNOR KERNER... cooperating fully with PRESIDENT LYNDON JOHNSON'S progressive policies of peace and prosperity... our state programs so well begun will be carried to even greater heights. We can expect virtual full employment in Illinois within 18 months... we can expect an even greater increase in the development of our economy... we can expect Governor Kerner to bend every effort to obtain a new revenue article for the fair and equitable distribution of taxes... we can expect further social reforms to the benefit of ALL the people.

Governor Kerner has given Illinois the momentum for prosperity.

LET'S KEEP IT!

The annual Halloween party for the children of Lincoln Estates will be held at the Ann Rutledge school Saturday evening, Oct. 31. This party is sponsored by the PTA and paid for by donations from the business men of Lincoln Estates.

There will be prizes for the best costumes. The prizes consist of 25 silver dollars, five for each group. The groups will be as follows: pre-school; first and second; third and fourth; fifth and sixth and seventh and eighth grades.

The judging will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m. There will be entertainment and refreshments. Don Ball is chairman of the party and Mrs. Angelo Aprile and Mrs. Pat Schofield are co-chairmen of the refreshment committee.

Thanks to the business men, there will be treats for all the Lincoln Estates children. There will also be police protection on Halloween night.

The Ann Rutledge PTA held their meeting Monday evening, Oct. 12 at the school. The meeting was presided over by the president, Ferne Griggs. Membership chairman, Mrs. Paul Wilson, reported 156 members of the PTA, which is 100%.

A discussion was held on serving hot lunches to the pupils, but it was tabled for further discussion. A square dance will be held in November, Mrs. Angelo Aprile, chairman. A candy sale will be held in December, Mrs. Lee Gericke, Chairman.

Mrs. Frances Feely's first and second grade class won the room count.

The program was a film on "Drug Addiction" and the speaker was the Rev. L. A. Houchins of the Assembly of God church.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frank Kovar, Mrs. Jerry Kovar, Mrs. Charles Jones and Mrs. Hubert Lough.

The next meeting will be held Monday, Nov. 2. The theme of the meeting will be "Command and Control System." The program will be an open house. The parents can visit their children's class rooms.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Charles Scheeler, Chairman, Mrs. Robert McNeely, Mrs. Alva Smith and Mrs. Paul Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler, Linda and Jayne, attended the dress parade at the Culver Military Academy on Sunday. Jayne had been a guest at the military ball Saturday evening.

ARTHUR GODFREY, famed TV and radio star, is the rider. He is aboard the $50,000 Lipazzaner gelding, Pluto Favory, and the action took place last Friday morning at the Riviera club of Orland Park.

Godfrey was there to visit his friend and former horse trainer, Prof. Arthur Konyot. Konyot had worked for Godfrey six and a half years, training his horses, including Goldie. Konyot, assisted by William Budde, is the riding instructor at the Riviera club. The famous troop of trained horses from Vienna which showed at Chicago last year is made up of Lipazzaners.

THAT GODFREY is a nice guy, decided Woody, and so he leaned back against the redhead's shoulder, perfectly content. Woody is a six-month old chimpanzee owned by Henry Yonker, owner of the Riviera club at Orland Park. Godfrey is Arthur Godfrey, of TV and radio. Godfrey and Woody met when the former was visiting the Riviera club last Friday to see a man about a horse.

Health Officer Warns Against Monoxide Gas

Accidental carbon monoxide poisoning in Will county was responsible for one death and three serious poisonings during 1963, according to Dr. Herbert S. Miller, Will county health officer.

With the onset of cold weather the chances of carbon monoxide poisoning increase, he warned. A closed house or car, improper ventilation, and a faulty heating plant or auto exhaust system can be a lethal combination.

Carbon monoxide is an odorless and colorless gas which may be formed by burning any fuel that contains carbon. This is true of solid fuels, such as coal, coke and wood; of liquid fuels such as oil, gasoline and kerosene, and of gaseous fuels such as manufactured and natural gas, Dr. Miller said. Any fuel-burning heating appliance may be a source of carbon monoxide unless the appliance is adjusted, operating and vented properly, he warned.

HYDRONICS?

Don't let the term "hydronics" throw you. It simply means the science of heating or cooling with water. In the hydronic home, water is automatically heated in a compact, cast iron boiler and circulated to room distributors -- often slim, under windows or along outside walls.

Clever Planning Produces A Suburban Home With A View

BY DOROTHY JUSKIE
The home of Jim and Jackie Basiaga of 14739 El Vista is one of quiet elegance and stateliness. The modern split level architecture of the home itself does much to present this picture, but in addition the Basiagas have beautifully landscaped the grounds and cleverly added touches to enhance the general appearance.

As an example, they have replaced the plain glass panels of their Gaslight with colored glass panels and added a saucy nameplate and a few shrubs at the base to make it very much a part of the house. One little smiling statuette on the front lawn seems to extend a personal invitation to callers.

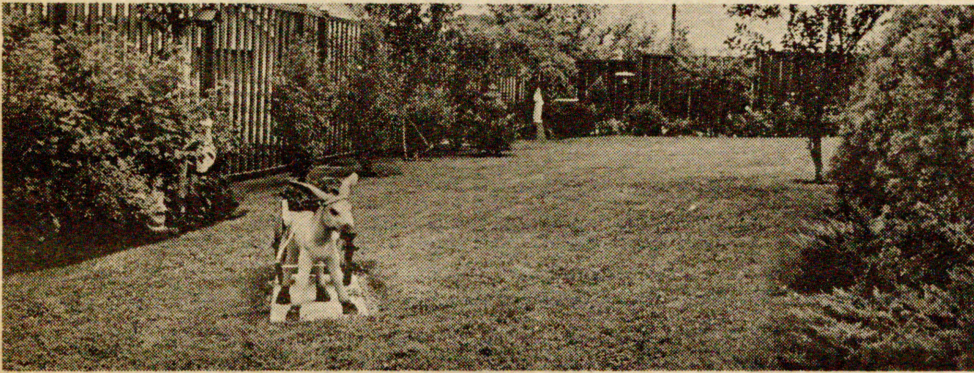

The grounds around the home might very easily give the Botanical Gardens competition. That intangible green thumb is something that many of us wish we had, and most of us don't. Jim Basiaga, whose garden is his forte, has not only two green thumbs, but we suspect most of his fingertips are of that hue.

He is a member of the American Rose Society, and early this summer was asked to show his garden to fellow members of the society at a Garden Walk. Some 25 members viewed the garden with its combination of beautiful flowers and equal-

"DONKEY SERENADE" - Another attraction in an already attractive garden is this little donkey pulling a cart filled with purple queens that the Basiagas brought back from Florida.

THAT ADDED TOUCH - The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Basiaga in the El Vista subdivision in Oak Forest has that added something that makes it stand out among the other attractive homes in the area. A personal touch can be seen that calls attention to the house as "our home!"

ly impressive shrubs and trees. Last spring Jim won a ribbon for a rose he entered in a show, named Angel Wings. The rose is as beautiful as its name.

There are 70 evergreens and 18 different types of trees around the grounds, many of which line a beautiful patio and walk of colored concrete blocks that parallel the back of the home.

Not only is a good gardener concerned with the right soil, location and care of plants and shrubs, but he also has a keen awareness of the proper and varied colors for his garden. The trees in this part of the country, with good results.

The Basiagas like to travel a good deal, and when on the road Jackie browses for items that will add to the beauty of the interior of the home, while Jim concentrates on plants for the outside. They have a blaze climber from New England, a few boxwood trees from Williamsburg, Va., which were featured at the Formal Gardens there. They have rhododendron from the Smokies in Tennessee, holly from Oregon, a Japanese maple, and some rose bushes from Cape Cod.

To add the finishing touch, the Basiagas have added a fountain which gives a cool, quiet tone to the garden, along with various other garden statuettes, among which is a donkey cart filled with purple queens obtained in Florida.

Upon entering the home, a caller is impressed with an attractive arrangement of furnishings in the living and dining rooms, that are a mixture of the Danish and Italian styles, all in walnut finish. Bits of cane adorn many of the pieces in both rooms. The subdued earth colors in the decorating scheme give the rooms a feeling of comfort and serenity.

Often times a house is furnished to perfection, but that extra something is missing that makes a home interesting. The Basiagas have added many curio-type pieces gathered from various parts of the country which reflect their interests, and these have added the finishing touch.

For instance, they recently returned from a vacation in the Cape Cod area, and brought back a miniature cranberry scoop. This is used to decorate a lovely hutch in the kitchen area. Jackie artfully adorned a hurricane candle holder from Williamsburg, Va., with artificial grapes, and achieved a delightful effect. Their dining room set is decorated with a centerpiece and candle stick holders from Hyannis, and a cuckoo clock from Mackinac adds its bit of charm to the room. Spring-kle the rooms with a tall vase and a live plant or two, and the finished product is most intriguing.

The living room and dining room overlook the garden, and the large picture windows in the living room and sliding patio doors in the dining room seem to bring the outside indoors.

The home has a large family room, furnished in gay leatherette covered furniture. This makes a fine retreat from the household hubbub, and also an ideal place for accomplishing all sorts of odd tasks.

Jim is a manager for the A & P Supermarket in Midlothian, and Jack is a teacher, and has just been made head of the primary department at the Paton School in Riverdale.

Jackie has a hobby which is rather unique. She collects spoons from all parts of the world. Although she has not personally gathered them, friends who have visited various countries have brought the spoons back for her, from the country of their origin.

There are homes and then there are homes ... some are expensive - some are alone offer the variance in shades in the Basiaga garden, with the weeping cut leaf silver Birch, the flowering almond, the red maple, sunburst locust, and silver blue colorado pin oak.

Interspersed are bushes and flowering shrubs such as a grape holly, golden privage, fire crackers, a plum bush, a white honeysuckle bush, a cranberry bush, a burning bush, and the peonies and carnations. Then, of course, one section of the garden is devoted to Jim's specialty, the rose. There are 85 rose bushes of various types in bloom, along with a Rose of Sharon tree and bush. He has grown several roses which have been "firsts"

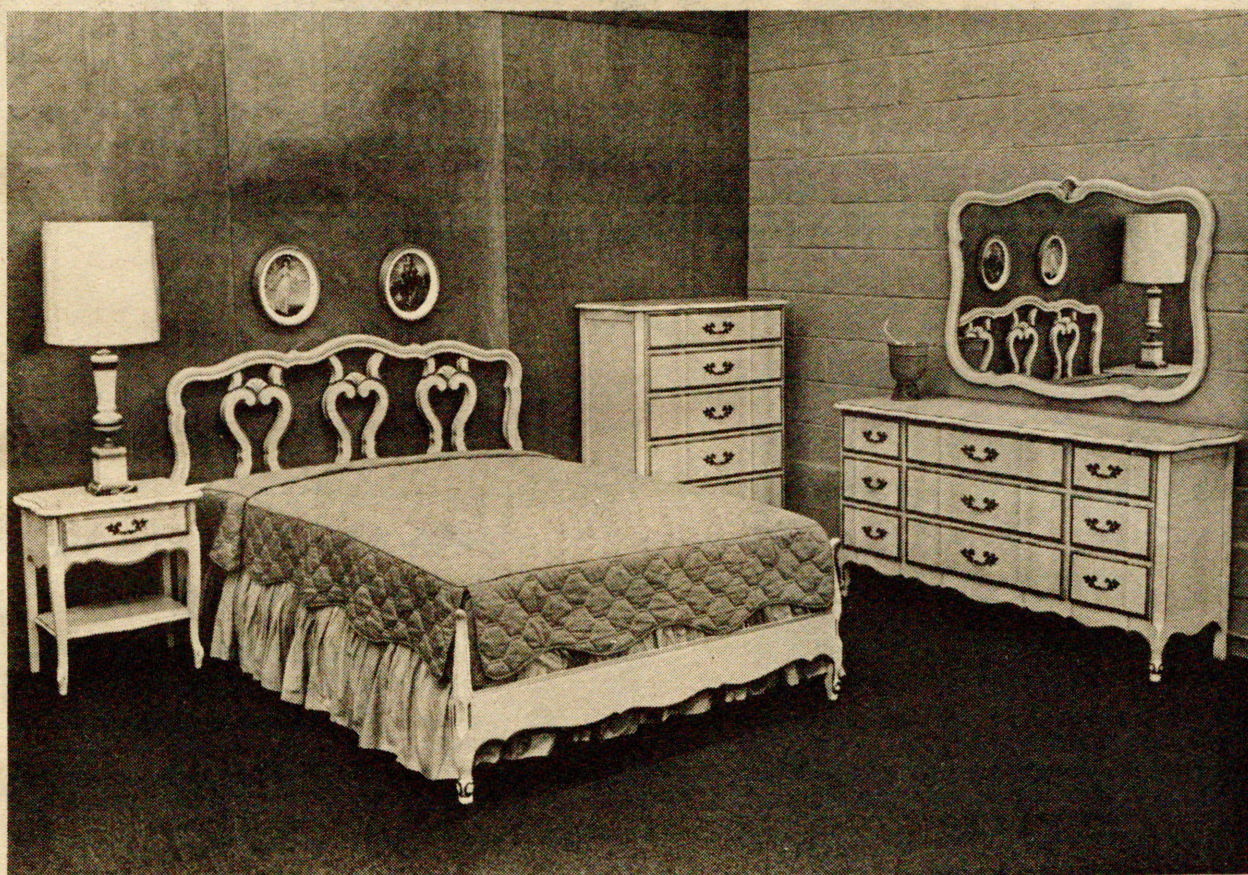

COZY CORNER - The lovely colored concrete block patio and walk not only gives color to the back of the home, but provides a perfect setting for the picnic table when cook-outs are enjoyed.

Create An Illusion Of Space

BY

ELIZABETH M. WOOLNER
INTERIOR DESIGNER

A little do-it-yourself magic with a bit of paint and plywood can create an illusion of space.

Many of us live in older apartments or homes where the size of the largest room averages 12 feet by 15 feet. If we can afford a professional remodeling job, much can be done towards giving such a room a larger look. But if our decorating budget is limited, we must depend upon a little artistic sorcery.

Let us consider a few tricks to bring about the illusion of spaciousness.

The depth and intensity of color play a major part in determining how spacious your room appears. Since pastel colors do not shock the eye and tend to recede, an average size room will look larger if the overall color scheme consists of light, blended colors. Whether you have carpeting or are buying new, keep your walls light and in a color that blends with your carpet. Painting ALL the woodwork the same color as the walls will do much to create the feeling of space because the eye will not be distracted.

Too much focus will be put on a sofa upholstered or slipcovered in a contrasting or dark color by giving a feeling of bulk. Draperies in large colorful floral prints tend to draw the walls inward. Blend them into the wall color and the diffusion of one color again creates the spacious look.

Many older apartments and homes have two average or small rooms separated by an archway with wall on either side. When this happens to be the case, I treat both rooms as though they were one, using the same wall color, carpeting and drapery treatment. The only time I recommend any variation is when the rooms are long and narrow and I want to give the illusion of the length being shortened. Then there are several things I could do. I could paint the narrow wall across one end of the length of the two rooms a darker tone of the wall color, or paper it with a suitable pattern. I could also apply one of the new vinyl wall coverings to give the wall the appearance of being wood paneled.

Often an unnecessary door leading off a room chops up a useful wall. Before the walls are painted, cover the entire door, including the frame, with a panel of wall-board. After painting, the outline of the door is visible but with the use of furniture and, or, pictures, you can successfully disguise the change.

Rooms that are decorated in pastel colors can seem to be lacking in character, even appear rather vapid. One bold pattern as a slipcover on a chair, a bouquet of mixed bright flowers on a table, a small colorful rug in front of a sofa, an arrangement of bright pictures, a table or cabinet lacquered in a bright contrasting color . . . all will add that touch of excitement to a room in which a pastel color scheme has been used to create that illusion of spaciousness.

New Ideas...

Home modernizing starts in the bathroom. The transformation can be easily made in a "vintage" bath by the replacement of old fixtures with attractive and colorful new equipment.

DECORATOR FREEDOM

Hydronic baseboard radiation offers complete freedom for home decorators. A baseboard system blankets the entire floor area with warmth, and ends cold walls and chilly corners.

NEW AND NEAT

Glass-hard surfaces that are stain-proof, fade-proof and easy - to - clean, are characteristics of modern plumbing fixtures. These factors, along with better appearance and glamorous colors and matching designs, have given impetus to the present boom in modernization of bathrooms and kitchens.

Lockport Home In Perfect Setting

Mr. and Mrs. Otto D. Michaelsen and children, Carol and Carl, moved into their spacious 10 room brick home Sept. 1, 1952. House is situated on a knoll facing Rt. 7 in Homer Township. The 25 acre estate with its many old trees is a perfect setting for such a lovely home.

The Michaelsens came from Evergreen Park and purchased the 25 acre estate in October, 1951, from the late Clara Zielke of E. 7th St.

When interviewed as to how such an immense home could be completed in such a short time, Michaelsen replied that he kept an eye on the project. Home was built by the late Christel Koehler of Homer Township.

Their daughter, Carol, is married to John Bachmann. They have three children, Lynn, five, Sandy, four, and (Continued - turn page)

RECREATION ROOM is the most lived in room of the Michaelsons home. On the right is an orange colored easy chair which is Michaelson's favorite spot. The Michaelsons have a television in this room. Walls are finished in white oak and the floor is tiled in brown and beige. Drapes carry out the theme of the soft brown tones. Also featured is recessed lighting. Steins on the bar were imported from Germany. A beautiful imported German cuckoo clock hung above the bar but is now replaced by a painting.

Lockport Home...

Michael John, two months. The Bachmanns live in a modest white frame home situated on one end of the Michaelsons estate.

Their son, Carl, is a junior at Purdue University, Indiana. A nephew, Dieter Michaelson, lived with them for five years until he married a few years ago.

Tool and Die Manufacturing Co., a new plant in McCook, Ill., is owned and operated by Michaelson. He employs about 80 persons.

Playing cards is a great pastime for both Mr. and Mrs. Michaelson. Sports, such as bowling, golfing, fishing and hunting are enjoyed by Michaelson, but he doesn't have a specific hobby. He is quite adept at playing dart-ball and belongs to the Dartball League in town.

Mrs. Michaelson enjoys playing bridge occasionally but says her hobby is primarily "a built-in baby sitter" for her grandchildren. Living so close, the grandchildren visit grandmother quite frequently. Since the Michaelsons have extra bedrooms now, the children have use of one for a playroom and their mother's room even has a crib set up besides the twin beds.

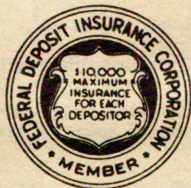

Since Michaelson originally came here from Germany, they have taken European tours since 1950. His relatives live in Germany. The Michaelsons visited many of the countries in Europe except for the past three years when they limited their vacation to Germany. Michaelson lost his mother in Europe three years ago thru an accident.

The Michaelsons spent a month in Germany this year visiting relatives.

Housewives Warned Of Gyps

Fall traditionally brings out hundreds of furnace repair gyp artists, warns Northern Illinois Gas Co. High pressure "heating inspectors" prey on the unsuspecting housewife and annually cost homeowners hundreds of thousands of dollars, the utility reports. The phony inspectors usually find something wrong with the heating unit and ask permission to tear down the furnace. Frequently the "inspectors" find the "unit is not worth replacing" once it is torn down. They then require a down payment, according to the gas company, and normally ask the housewife to sign a contract for a new furnace or various repairs, usually at exorbitant prices. NI-Gas recommends that homeowners first of all do not let strangers into their homes without demanding adequate identification and always check the reliability of a salesman or inspector and the company before letting them tear down a furnace or signing a contract.

If a door-to-door heating salesman reports that carbon monoxide is present near a gas furnace, flue or chimney, homeowners should call Northern Illinois Gas Company for an inspection.

The utility advises that homeowners have their heating systems inspected, cleaned and serviced in the spring or summer by a qualified, reputable local heating contractor who has a well-established heating business in the community.

Spanish Revolution In Home Furniture Design

Another Spanish revolution is now in progress. Only this one's on the home front.

Spanish styling which has made a strong impact on the fashion world, will emerge with even greater influence in the months to come. In keeping with this newest fashion trend, American of Chicago has combined the romance, warmth and charm of hand-crafted Spanish designs to create a new furniture grouping called the Su Casa Collection.

These Spanish-inspired accent pieces, introduced to buyers at the summer furniture markets, also have made a public debut at the National Design Center, at Marina City. A special theme room, featuring the new pieces has been created by the design department of the John M. Smyth Company.

The Su Casa Collection will include curio cabinets, consoles, desks, chests, benches and a group of occasional tables. Rich woods, square lines, curved legs, panelling effects and fine detailing -- all characteristic of centuries-old Spanish designs -- are strongly reflected in American's pieces.

The increased interest in such period styling as Spanish is an indication that furniture designs and interiors have, in a way, "come of age."

Gone is the over-done opulence that passed for elegance in the 1930's. So is the great modern movement that swept the country after that.

During the '30's our country was rather like a young girl, unsure of herself, who over-dresses to appear sophisticated and smart. Modern followed, and like that same girl who suddenly realizes that she has been overdoing it, furniture designs went to the other extreme, and became austere, uncluttered and "honest."

But in the 1960's there is more of a relaxed attitude toward design, in general. There is more freedom of blending periods and styles rather than sticking strictly to only one influence.

Spanish, in particular, has a flexibility that lends itself to an effective and imaginative mixing with modern designs. The lines and woods of the Latin-inspired designs are a perfect foil for contemporary interiors.

The recent popularity of Spanish styling is probably due to the fact that it is appealing to both men and women. The bold, strong lines suit masculine taste, while the aura of romance that surrounds Spain attracts feminine interest.

Quality And Safety In Hot Water Heater

If you're really interested in a "bargain" automatic water heater, look at more than just the price. In most cases the way it's made will best determine whether it's a good buy.

There are two basic types of heater tanks available today -- ferrous (containing iron) and non-ferrous. These designations refer to the innermost surface of the tank. For example, a ferrous tank lined with a non-ferrous material is called a non-ferrous tank.

As a rule, non-ferrous tanks are considered superior, since they will not rust. Such units are surfaced with glass, monel (non-rusting) alloys, copper, molded stone or cement. The type best suited for an individual homeowner's needs often depends on the nature of local water.

Insulation is another important quality point to check. A good unit will not only efficiently heat the water, but having done so, will keep it that way, using little additional fuel. Insulation makes this possible by surrounding the tank with a blanket of heat-retaining material. The best types of insulation are non-combustible substances, including rock, mineral compounds and glass wool.

Proper installation is a prime factor in water heater performance. Units should be installed only under the supervision of an experienced plumbing contractor.

SPANISH ACCENT -- Elegance with a Spanish flavor -- this is the latest in home furnishings as reflected in this room treatment created for Chicago's Marina City by J. M. Smyth Co. It features pieces from American's new Su Casa collection executed in tones of midnight blue and absinthe green. An octagonal-shaped curio cabinet standing between two matching camel backed love seats in a blue and green linen fabric, serves as a focal point.

To Decorate With Fun And Flair-Use Sheets

How does your bedroom suit you? Ever wake up one morning and wish it looked entirely different? Here's one way you can change it's personality with a minimum of expense -- and a great deal of fun. Try decorating with sheets. Patterns and material can work into a variety of settings. All you need is a pair of scissors, a needle and thread, and a sense of adventure.

First, look at your bedroom carefully -- decide what kind of changes you want to make. Striped or plain? Tailored or detailed? Dramatic colors or pastels? Remember -- the room should be a FRAME -- THE PICTURE IS YOU! Then go ahead with this quick and easy way to change the personality of your bedroom.

If you've never used sheets for decorating you will find that fine percale sheets are comparable to expensive quality fabrics. And a double bed-sized sheet gives you about 7 square yards of of sheet into 6 or more strips. Seam together into one long strip and hem lower edge. (Box pleats require 2 1/2 times measurements--inverted box pleats require triple.) Pin pleat at each corner of box spring. Place muslin piece on top of spring; turn a 1/2 inch seam under all around, pin to dust ruffle, and top stitch. Presto! A smooth and elegant bedroom accessory!

The kind of VALANCE you select will also set the style of your room. For the gathered variety, cut a strip double width of valance, and to desired length -- allowing 2 inches for top hem, and 1 1/2 inches for bottom. Make 1 inch side hems and sew top hem down. Next, measure down one inch for heading, stitch and gather. A floral pattern makes up beautifully into these gathered lines. For a light and airy girl's room, combine with pastel pink or hibiscus -- a winning combination.

The plain THROW of bed, again leaving length as is. Repeat these steps for lining. To sew: pin the two side pieces to top piece -- right side out. Press, and close opening by hand stitching.

An attractive variation on the plain throw is the QUILT-ED THROW SPREAD. How to make it? Place light-weight batting or sheet wadding between pieces of cut material. Pin securely and baste. Use quilting foot to stitch in squares or diamond shapes. Bind edges with bias strips made from remainder of sheet. Turn down to reveal a matching fitted "spring-on" sheet, it makes a pretty picture!

MIGHTY MASCULINE -- this bedroom ensemble made with new sheets. To make coverlet, cut a piece to fit top of bed. For ruffle, cut four 10 inch strips (two for width, and two for length). Repeat steps for lining. To complete, stitch four strips to coverlet and attach lining. It's a winner!

luxurious fabric -- WITH-OUT SEAMS. The conclusion is a good one: you get more for your money.

Another advantage of decorating with sheets is that color possibilities are limitless. Springmaid fashion sheets, for instance, come in a stunning range of floral patterns, print designs, stripes, solids and embroideries -- all in a marvelous choice of colors in designer-tones. You can combine them in any number of ways! A spread ... valances ... a vanity skirt ... drapes: mix or match or harmonize them all!

Take measurements to see how many sheets you'll need. Remember that sheet lengths given are before hemming. Since ALL sheets shrink, launder yours and press or send them to the laundry before you measure and cut. Above all, do CUT your sheets -- don't tear them.

The style of a DUST RUFFLE can establish the tone of your room. For a tailored master bedroom -- the box pleat can't be surpassed. How to begin? Measure down from top of box spring to the floor, adding 2 1/2 inches for hem. Cut entire length

SPREAD requires 3 or 4 sheets -- size 72 x 108 -- for a twin bed. (Number depends on the size of bed) For a double bed, it's 3 or 4 sheets -- 81 x 108. Cut sheet to width of bed, leaving length as is. For the sides, cut two strips to height

The following day, Wed-

Children's 11th Book Fair To Open Doors On Saturday

The 12th annual Miracle of Books fair for boys and girls, which has drawn more than 600,000 visitors during the past 11 years, will open at the Museum of Science and Industry at 1 p.m. Saturday (Oct. 31), and continue thru Sunday, Nov. 8.

Designed primarily to stimulate a greater interest in reading among young people, the fair will feature 3,000 of the books considered by the Book Council to be the most outstanding among those now available for children. Included will be a special section of the finest children's books published recently in foreign countries. Featuring offerings in 24 different languages and lavishly decorated, these books have been selected by the American Library Association.

No books will be sold or offered for sale at the fair and admission will be free.

Most of the books will have an appeal to children from four to 13 years of age. They will be displayed in 14 categories, ranging from simple picture books and fairy tales to the children's books describing the wonders of the space age.

Tables will be provided where the young visitors may sit down and scan books at their leisure. In addition, each child will receive a notebook in which to list books he or she would like to own.

On the two Sundays during the fair, as well as on Saturday, Nov. 7, it will be open to the public from 10:00 to 6:00 p.m. while on all weekdays it will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

On the week-ends of the fair prominent authors and book illustrators will be present to chat with visitors, both young and old. At the same time parents and teachers will be enabled to inspect a special exhibit of books suggested by the Chicago Public Library as an ideal basic library for children. It will be staffed by trained children's librarians.

A variety of dramatic programs will be staged in the Museum theater during the fair. Produced under the supervision of Mrs. Martha Bennett King, Book Fair program director, these entertaining and informative programs appropriately complement the underlying theme of the fair: "Stimulating children to improve their reading habits."

For example, every school - group planning to visit the Fair on weekday mornings will see the play, "Rumpelstiltskin." Approximately 20 minutes in length, this play will be presented by The Dunes Art Children's Theater, under the direction of Mrs. Nora MacAlvay.

All during the fair children will see costumed characters from children's literature making books come alive. In one area, Mother Goose will hold court, while in another the Book Witch will entertain young visitors.

and you'll buy gas

If you're about to look for a new range, you'll look at gas because you've always known gas ranges are the most dependable, most economical and easiest to use of any ranges.

Today's gas ranges are all this and a lot more.

For example: modern gas ranges offer the Burner-with-a-Brain for precise top-of-range cooking to end messy spill-overs. Programmed oven cooking roasts food to perfection, then keeps it serving-hot for hours, automatically. Infra-red broiling and rotisserie roasting are a few of the many other convenience features you'll find in today's gas ranges.

And don't forget, every gas range gives you instant control of the precise heat you want. No wonder women who cook modern say: "Nothing minds you like a modern gas range."

Beating Unbeaten Mustangs Is Goal Of Eagles--

BY DOUG CONNELL

The Carl Sandburg Eagles will meet unbeaten Evergreen Park on Saturday, bent on defeating the Mustangs and continuing an impressive come-alive effort in South-west Suburban Conference football. The Eagles walked over Oak Lawn last week 40 to 0.

A tough defense combined with an aggressive line and a driving backfield were too much for the Spartans. Quarterback Garth Aronson and linemen Bill Karolich, winners of this week's Hustler awards, led a determined and professional-looking Sandburg eleven to six touchdowns in the homecoming rout.

Sandburg lost little time in taking control of the game as they forced Oak Lawn to punt on the first series of plays, earned two first downs and scored their first touchdown at 4:50 of the first quarter. Junior halfback Jim McGhee, who ran well all afternoon, ran for 10 yards and the score. The conversion was good by Ed Peterson and the Eagles had a lead they were to hold thruout the game.

The Spartans ran five more plays before they lost the ball and the quarter ended. The Eagles took over on the Spartan 10 yard line and McGhee and Phil Allano smashed down to the Oak Lawn four yard line when the quarter ended.

Allano then dove off tackle on the first play of the second period to stretch the Eagle lead to 13 points. Peterson added another tally to make the score 14-0.

Peterson, who has not had too much opportunity to demonstrate his kicking skill thus far in the season, kicked four extra points against the Spartans.

The Eagles kicked off and allowed the Spartan offense to move the ball for three plays and then took over on their own 20 yard line. Strong efforts by halfbacks McGhee, Allano and Chuck Heffner, along with timely blocking by wing back Rusy Mitcheff and the Eagle line, moved the ball for three more Eagle first downs.

The Eagles were forced to punt after losing yardage on a penalty, and Oak Lawn got the ball on their own 15. A steady pressure by Mollitor, Burke, Pnasek, Shelkum, and Powell of the Sandburg line drove the Spartans back for repeated losses and the Eagles took over only eight yards from the goal.

Quarterback Garth Aronson, who threw two touchdown passes during the game and marshalled the Eagle offense all day, hit end Gary Kasper in the endzone for six more points. Peterson's kick was good, giving the Eagles a comfortable 21 point lead at the end of the first half.

Second half action was highlighted by more Sandburg scoring and some fine blocking and defensive work by the entire Eagle line. The period opened with McGhee returning the Spartan kickoff to the Oak Lawn 23 yard line to set up the next Eagle Score. Allano moved the ball to the 20 where halfback Charlie Heffner took over and sprinted across the line on the next play.

Devine said Heffner played well the entire game and prevented the Spartan defense from pressuring McGhee or Allano as he carried for 36 yards in four carries.

Oak Lawn received Peterson's kickoff only to lose the ball two plays later on a fumble. Hustler Karolich hit Spartan fullback Wayne Luchini as the Spartanite received a pass, forcing the fumble which Allano recovered for Sandburg.

The Eagles scored on the next series as a strong backfield and a formidable passing attack by Aronson brought the ball to the one yard line. McGhee carried over his second score of the afternoon, placing the Eagles on top of a comfortable 33-0 score at the end of the third quarter.

An eight yard pass play to end Roland Roth at 7:31 in the fourth period gave the Eagles their final touchdown. Peterson left the game in style as his extrapoint kick added another Sandburg tally to the scoreboard.

A creditable performance by the Eagle second team held the Spartans throughout the rest of the game.

Earlier in the day the sophomore Eagles were eliminated from first place contention as they lost their first game of the season to a fourth quarter Oak Lawn touchdown.

The freshmen added to the happy homecoming atmosphere by defeating the younger Spartans 14-0. Seven points each by Terry Thompson and Dave Sullivan did the trick for the Eagles.

The homecoming victory gives coach Joe Devine's Eagles a 2-3 record for conference play. "We'll be out to get Evergreen next week," said Devine. "I think we'll give them a good run for their money. The team is out for a win Saturday and I think they'll get it."

The Eagles found themselves three weeks ago as they came from behind to beat Bremen 13-10 in the second half. Against the then first-ranked Homewood-Flossmoor team on Oct. 17, the Eagles outplayed the Vikings, but lost by a heart-breaking 9-6 margin.

The effort displayed against the Spartans last week may indicate an Eagle victory against Evergreen this Saturday. Only time will tell. Game time is 2 p.m. at the Mustang's home field. Sophomore action begins at 12:15.

Knights Click On Passes But Reavis Wins 40-25

BY NORM BEEBE

Saturday afternoon the Reavis Rams defeated the Lincoln-Way Knights by a score of 40-25. This victory put the Rams record at 4-1 in conference play, with this loss the Knights are 1-4 in conference play.

The Knights started to show their opponents that they were no pushovers at the beginning of the second quarter when Keith Schram, junior quarterback completed a 16-yard pass to senior end Craig Cleply. Schram once again connected with a pass to Howard Grimes which was good for 18 yards to give the Knights a first and goal situation. The Knights first touchdown was scored when Jeff Urban, senior halfback plowed thru the Rams defense. Tom Hamiltons conversion attempt was good to end the half with the score standing Reavis 28, Lincoln-Way 7.

The second half rally started when Jimmy Markl, junior halfback, snatched a fumble by the Rams on their own 34 yard line. Keith Schram once again showed his passing ability by connecting with Tom Hamilton for a gain of eight yards. On the very next play, Schram tossed a short pass to Howie Grimes for two yards which gave the Knights a first down. After a few tries on the ground, Schram once again took to the air and completed a 20-yard pass to Grimes. The Knights second touchdown came on a fourth and goal situation when Jeff Urban scampered for the needed two yards.

In the fourth quarter Schram connected with seven passes while attempting ten. The third touchdown for the Knights came when Tom Hamilton ran 13 yards. Hamiltons conversion attempt failed. The Knights fourth and final touchdown came when Schram completed a 13-yard pass to Grimes. The conversion attempt by Hamilton was short of its mark.

In this game, the Knights completed 20 out of 31 passes for a total passing gain of 179 yards. The Rams attempted four passes but only completed two for 41 yards. In rushing yards the Knights tallied 123 yards while Reavis rushed 203 yards.

The frosh-soph Knights were defeated by frosh-soph Rams by a score of 20 to 6. The only touchdown for the Knights was scored by Frank Fleck, after catching a 25 yard pass from quarterback Al Janeke.

Lincoln-Way will meet the Bremen Braves on Oct. 31 at Lincoln-Way with hope of breaking their three game losing streak.

Oakview School Begins Basketball Practice

Basketball practice is underway at the Oakview school under the direction of coaches Henry Marshall, Roger McDaniel, and Paul Mussario. About 80 boys in the lightweight and heavyweight groups are working daily in practice sessions in preparation for the opening game with Lemont Oct. 30.

The process of selecting cheerleaders for the 1964-65 school year has been completed. The following girls have survived the elimination process and will represent the New Lenox schools for the 1964-65 school year: From the sixth grade, Gail Shreffler and Debbie Seyb; seventh grade, Cindy Huttenhoff and Ellen Staehling, eighth grade, Marilyn Talmadge, Paulette Torkelson, Gale Dunn, Marion Nuetzmann, Wendie Luckhart, and Joanne Schonwise. Janet Carroll is the faculty director of the cheerleaders and she will be assisted by Paul Mussario, faculty sponsor of the student council.

Football fans and parents filled the grandstand at Mokena Community Park Sunday afternoon to see the Burros midget football team play Downers Grove and chalk up its first win of the season. The Burros won 12 to 6.

Burros Beat D.G. 12-6 For 1st Win Of Season

The Burros jumped off to an early lead on a right end run by Terry Ryan for a touchdown. The run was for 27 yards. In the second quarter, Steve Sorenson took a handoff from Tobey Krueger and threw a left-handed pass to Ryan for 36 yards and a second touchdown. Both extra point tries missed. The Mokena team looked like anything but the team which lost the week before to Kankakee by a 47-0 score.

It was strictly a team effort. The coaching staff in summing up the win had to pay tribute to the linebackers, a position which has been woefully weak this year. Scott Holladay, Cliff Toosley and Mark Krueger were the linebackers. The defensive ends Tom Elberts and Eddy Scallise contained the attempted sweeps Downers Grove all day and Mark Knize was in the Downers Grove backfield all afternoon.

Downers Grove scored its touchdown with 30 seconds left against the third Mokena team. On offense, the blocks were made which sprung the Burros fast stepping backs. Ron Schlack, Mike Popplek, who had to block the defense sive ends did a great job. The offensive line of Ron Corniels, Mickey Scallise, John Shewski, Duane Nieman and John Schilling also won praise.

Next Sunday, the Burros go to Downers Grove to complete the home and home series. The team will leave the park at 12:15 p.m.

The next home game is Nov. 7 with the Kankakee Moose.

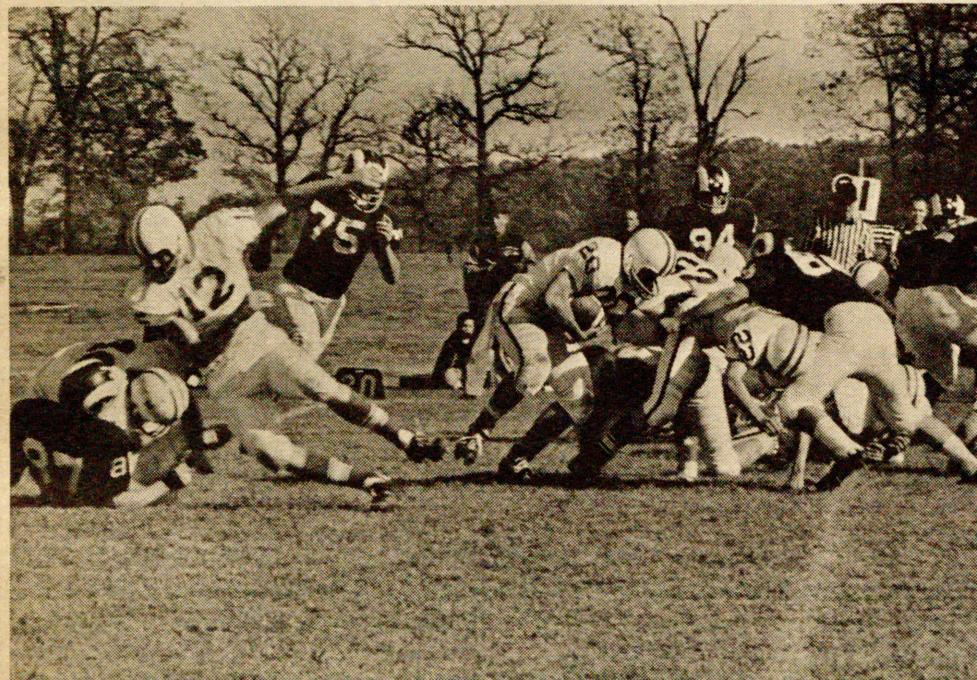

List Winners In Gymkhana

The "Gymkhanna" sponsored by the New Lenox Riding Club, held at the 4-H field on Sunday, Oct. 18 was very successful. Following is a list of the winners: Amy Goodwin, open english model; Owen Matthews, open western model; Carolyn Folker, open pony model; Carol Ludder, sr. trail; Sally Gardner, jr. trail; Kathy Corcoran, egg race; Sherry Swierz, pet; Amy Goodwin, english pleasure; Jill Vally, children's western pleasure; Dee Witten, costume; Carolyn Folker, open pony to bike; Gail Dunn, children's trail; Pat O'Brien, dunk the apple.

A LOT OF ACTION--No. 12 is a Lincoln-Way end, Howard Grimes is about to make sure the Edward Vlcek, No. 87, Reavis end, doesn't get up for this play. Vlcek had already been felled by Jeff Urban. The Reavis tackle coming up, No. 75, is 180-pound David Johnson. That is Tom Hamilton with the ball, and one of his blockers, No. 22, is Keith Schram, No. 22, No. 52 for L-W is Ray Hommes and No. 84 of Reavis is Bill White, an end. (Graphic Newspapers photo)

Pomp And Pageantry Mark Homecoming At Sandburg

Homecoming is more than a football game; it is the pageantry of floats and queens and a certain undefinable air of excitement. For students at Carl Sandburg high school, the Oct. 24 Homecoming was no different.

For the first time in four years, students were permitted to build floats for a parade between the frosh-soph and varsity game. In the competition, the Girls Athletic Association took first place with "Whipped Cream," a float showing a Spartanite being lathered by an Eagle.

Second place went to Future Homemakers of America for "Iron 'Em," which showed Eagles industriously flattening a Spartan player. Third place went to the Sandburg Guard for "Sink 'Em," a gold anchor resting on a blue field.

Miss Kris Howard of 12600 S. Iroquois road was named queen by the students. Members of her court were seniors Sue Atkinson, Karen Howard, Cheryl Larcher; Donna Paser, junior; Joanne Crowhurst, sophomore; and Marie Lang, freshman. Queen Kris presented the game ball to officials before the kickoff of the varsity game. The Eagles swamped Oak Lawn 40-0.

A, 123rd Maintenance Battalion, First Armored Division at Fort Hood, Texas, following a 17 day leave visiting his wife Gail, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Barry, in Orland.

Private Upp completed his basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. in September, 1963. While temporarily stationed in Needles, Calif., he participated in Exercise Desert Strike. After his unit was again stationed in Texas he was joined by his wife, Gail, who is employed at the Andrew Corporation in Orland, while she was on vacation.

During his recent leave Private Upp and his wife were guests at the home of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Deane C. Upp of Midlothian. This was his first opportunity to see his nephew, Steven Daniel Upp, 7 months old. The baby's grandmother, Mrs. Frances E. Upp of Oak Forest was included in the party.

Telephone: 479-3521
A successful service project was completed on Oct. 22 when flower decorated tray favors and greeting card booklets were delivered and distributed at Tinley Park hospital by members of the Mokena Women's Club. This project was planned by Janice Peterson and assisted by Candice Fee, Janet Richards, Joy Schiek, Peggy Nichols, Susan Dixon, Judith Sellers, Cheryl Miller and Brenda Roberson, all members of Girl Scout Troop 385.

On Oct. 24, girls working on the cyclist's badge met at St. John's church and demonstrated their ability and knowledge of safety rules and went through a checkup on the mechanical condition of their bikes. Prior to this, all members of Troop 385 attended a safety lecture given by Chief Roy Newton at a regular meeting. November will start off with a triple celebration, a Troop birthday (4 years old), a Juliet Low birthday and a costumed Halloween party. Guests will be from Troop 387, a sister junior troop and their leaders, Mrs. Schiek and Mrs. Livengood. A contest for the prettiest, funniest and ugliest costumes will be held and prizes awarded.

Later plans for the Troop include a bicycle hike, work on the Conservation badge and a Court Awards in January.

Troop 397 with leaders, Mrs. Donna Schiek and Mrs. Elsie Langland presented wings and pins to 7 new fly-ups into junior scouting. They were: Paula Knierum, Adrienne Peterson, Fay Langland, Joanne Bruce, Jan Schiek, Terri Coffman, and Debra Pleson, Pam Carlson, a new girl into scouting, was presented a pin.

A "Scouts Own" ceremony was presented by all the girls. The theme of the ceremony was the Girl Scout promise and laws. Janet Richardson was the main speaker. A poem was given by Cristine Wrath and Joy Schiek assisted at the piano.

The table was decorated with fall colors and the lovely centerpiece was made and given to the girls by Mrs. Carol Schultz, president of the Mokena Garden Club. Refreshments were serv-

The Working Classes

J. A. WARD

If you work in an office, you've probably notice the final fall of the world renowned ink blotter. While there are still those who cling to the view that the only civilized way to end a letter is with a "Weete" ink signature, manufacturers who only a few years ago cranked out hundreds of millions of ink blotters annually today say blotters are dead ducks... Selling them is like selling combs to baldheaded men.

As in the case with many new developments, blotter paper came about because a Scotsman forgot to add sizing to some paper he was making. To cover up his mistake, he proclaimed the invention of what scholars later referred to as "charta bibula" drinking paper. Scraps of blotter paper has been found between the leaves of fifteenth century ledgers.

In America, blotter manufacturing got going in the 1860's. But not until some advertising genius came up with the idea of slapping an ad on one side did blotter manufacturing really hit its stride -- a blooming thriving business that lasted for almost thirty years, 1920 til 1949.

The businessmen everywhere were quick to appreciate the low cost of the public informed about their goods and services through a colorful ad on one side of an ink blotter that hopefully would sit on some potential customer's desk.

During the boom years, it was nothing for a single manufacturer to crank out 20,000,000 or more blotters a year. Every office was flooded with blotters showing curve cuties, sunset scenes, children's blotters with slogans, gags, mottoes -- and then there was the all black blotter claimed to be forgery-proof.

What happened to the booming blotter business? The biggest finger points to the ball point pen, which came upon the scene in 1945. But actually, it wasn't until several years later and improvement of quick drying inks that the handwriting was on the wall unsmudged. However, if you happen to have some ink blotters in your desk -- Don't throw them away, as someday the manufacturers of fountain pens may decide to lead the public back to the wonderful joys and grace of "Weete Wryttinge".

By Rosemary

The inquiring and creative spirit generated by Christopher Columbus' great discovery not only served to inspire American men to great heights of industrial, agricultural, and cultural achievement—the effect on women was also of the highest order.

Among the many members of the distaff side that distinguished themselves in the creative fields of commerce were two—Betsy Metcalf and Cadace Wheeler—whose attainments led to the founding of a large industry and an outstanding profession.

In 1789, Miss Metcalf, a mere slip of a Massachusetts girl, discovered a process for making straw commercially usable. She bleached and braided meadowgrass into a bonnet through the use of her secret ingredient. When she exhibited her handiwork the demand was so great that she opened her own business. Soon her company was making a multitude of other products from the specially treated straw and from that beginning the new industry grew by leaps and bounds.

Miss Wheeler's keen artistic eye gave rise to the interior decorating profession. While attending the Philadelphia Centennial Exposition's collection of embroidery and needle work in 1876 she was struck with the sudden idea that feminine skill with the needle could be applied to many other forms of decorative works for the home, as well as the relatively narrow field to which it was confined. Within a year she had established the New York Society of Decorative Art which was to give thousands of women profitable employment and play a vital role in the creation and production of decorative work that graced many of the fine mansions of that and subsequent times.

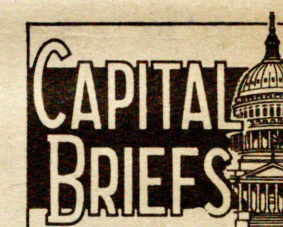

WHAT ECONOMY?—"Any Administration that is still adding 325 new employees per week to the public payroll and which is spending $125 million per week more than its income, certainly must have its tongue in cheek when it talks about economy."—Sen. John Williams (R-Del.).

COSTLY FRINGES—The cost of government employee fringe benefits now amounts to 23 per cent of the total payroll. The benefits include retirement, annual and sick leave, health and life insurance. The overall payroll is $15 billion annually and the fringe benefits are estimated at $3.5 billion.

SEED MONEY—The new Poverty Act allows small ($2,500 loans) to farmers. However, the Agriculture Department announced that in the 1964 fiscal year, the Farmers Home Administration lent $206 million to only 13,550 farmers—an average of more than $15,000 per loan.

Rep. Katherine St. George's comment on the inequalities of excise taxes should certainly bring loud applause from women shoppers who have long been required to pay "luxury" taxes on absolute necessities. The Congresswoman said: "A woman's handbag is not a luxury. It is a necessity. If you tax handbags for women you should tax pockets for men."

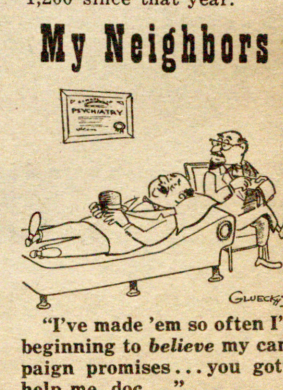

ONE-WAY REASONING—When Rep. Fino (R-N.Y.) introduced a bill to hike Social Security payments by 10 per cent, he didn't utter a word about where the money is to come from. At present rates, more goes out than now comes in.

SPACELESS—The House Science Committee, which deals in outer space problems, has problems in inner space. The committee is confined to cramped basement quarters because its new quarters are not ready for occupancy.

WISH YOU WERE . . .—The proposal to raise the public debt limit from $315 billion to $324 billion brought this question from a quipster: "Isn't it too bad that our great grandchildren can't be here to see what a wonderful time we are having spending their money?"

SHORT MEMORY—Rep. H. R. Gross (R-Iowa) reports that although Commerce Secretary Hodges said, in 1962, that there were too many jobs in his department, the Commerce payroll has been increased by more than 1,200 since that year.
